

Cavett Elementary School

Family Engagement Agenda – Quarter 2

1. Freddys fundraiser on September 30th made Cavett $87.
2. Peter Piper Pizza Boo Bash made Cavett $305.11. The family turnout was less than prior years and most people I asked said they couldn't afford it right now.
3. Cavett's next fundraiser night is November 19th at Canes on Ajo Way.
4. Cafecito was held on October 15th. Also, a spirit week 10/20-10/24, parents proposed a "Grown Up" day featuring a different grade each month.
5. October 28 was a gathering called Muffins and Memories held by 2nd grade in Library. A second-grade student invited one of their favorite people to have a muffin, share a moment and make a memory.
6. November 11th is Veterans Day and there is no school.
7. Curriculum Night is November 12th from 5p – 630p. The theme is Words of Thanks: A Literacy Celebration. The Scholastic Book Fair is also during this time, and families will have the opportunity to visit. We will have a Book Walk, Crafts, Story Telling and other tables of activities for families to join in and will have a backpack filled with books to take home and read.
8. Next Cafecito is scheduled for November 26th.
9. Viva Pima Kids has helped 42 students, and the program is over for the fall semester.
10. We have a list of organizations who help families who are experiencing economic hardship without assistance. Information was sent to parents online.
11. The Fraternal Order of Police is sponsoring a Breakfast with Santa on December 17, and ten students will be chosen to attend, and Shop with a Cop on December 18 will sponsor two students to go shopping at Burlington Store on Broadway for Christmas items with a police officer.
12. Cavett Cash Store is always accepting donations.
